Gordon B. Logan, Founder and CEO

Gordon Logan is the founder of Sport Clips, Inc. Recognizing the potential of targeting the huge market of haircuts for men and boys, Logan and his management team developed the Sport Clips concept, including the development of haircutting systems, operating procedures, and marketing programs to capitalize on this market. With more than 20 years of franchising experience, Logan has distilled his knowledge of the hair care industry to simplify and focus the Sport Clips systems.

Since 1979, he has owned and operated salons throughout Texas; served on the Board of Directors of Command Performance Styling Salons as a franchisee-elected representative from 1982-1986; president and executive director of the Command Performance Franchisees' Association from 1986-1991; president of Performance Salon Systems, Inc. (PSS), franchisor of the Command Performance system; director of the International Chain Salon Association; vice-president and director of the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce; director of the Georgetown Industrial Foundation; and, founder and CEO of Sport Clips, Inc. (1995-present).

Logan was president of Sport Clips, Inc. from its inception in 1995 until February 2006 when Clete Brewer joined as president. Prior to becoming a salon owner, Logan served as an Aircraft Commander in the U.S. Air Force (1969-1976), and worked as a financial planning and control consultant with Price Waterhouse & Co. in Houston, Texas (1976 - 1980).
